“FIRE AWAY!”

FALL OF THE FOURTH REICH By Peter Thompson

SECRET NAZI SEX ORGIES ON MARS

We Earth men have a talent for ruining big, beautiful things.
—Ray Bradbury, The Martian Chronicles

There is a curiously small, unambitious, and very cluttered Nazi cemetery on Mars.

Secreted behind a low rise of collapsed debris in the acrid Martian moonscape is a secret memorial to human hatred. The shallow graves dug several feet deep into the petrified permafrost of the once mud-rich lakebed are now choked with jagged copper-colored scree.

At first glance, it appears to be just another field of demolition debris, gratuitous brown rock-scatter.

The humble Nazi necropolis waits patiently to be rediscovered as it sits in the boundless eternity of deep space.

The burial ground is located within the confines of Gale Crater, a clay and sulfur bed with boulder ramparts in an ancient striated basin some 16,000 feet off the valley floor, way up on the rocky outcrops of Mount Sharp or Aeolis Mons.

The site is unofficially known as "Hidden Valley." The local terrain spans an enormous eroded mound thought to contain wet brine flows and sedimentary build-up from recent sprays of surface water, possibly even traces of microbial life, now mired in silt.

The Nazi monuments, the once elaborate iron-cross sentinels casting long geometric shadows on cold Martian afternoons were long ago toppled and defaced by right-minded vandals with advanced lasers and explosives.

Sweep away the thick layers of russet soot and you'd see swastikas carved in reverse relief over family names like Sedlmeier, Wirths, Ullman, Kinder...and Mengele.

Rise Of The Fourth Reich

Entombed beneath the maroon Martian regolith, the fine accumulations, drifts, and deposits of broken rock, sand, and silt from billions of years of indifferent neglect and fragmented consolidation, lay the frozen corpses of some of the most vile sons of bitches to ever darken a planet.

The latest pictures of the site show that, happily, none of these ghouls are resting in peace. The area is in a state of severe disrepair and decay. It's a grim blight, even on Mars.

NASA's $2.5 billion, sedan-sized roving science lab, Curiosity, photographed some of the cemetery remains in 2017 before ironically turning a blind eye and rolling off in a more important pursuit, that of collecting organic carbon compounds.

What the pictures show are a trio of what appear to be human skulls, more likely Martian rocks carved into intricate Nazi SS Totenkopfs, death's head idols that presumably once sat atop the fallen monuments.

This is not just some Nazi mass grave filled with the assorted body parts of front-line grunts. Mars is the final resting place of men from the Waffen-SS, Adolph Hitler's elite Praetorian Guard.

The Guard were comprised of fanatical followers so indoctrinated by Reichsfuhrer Heinrich Himmler's mystically deranged, drug-fueled visions of "hell on Earth made real" that it finally led them off-planet—all the way to Mars, where they hoped to regroup and reignite the fires under their evil enterprise again. Hunted to the ends of the Earth by Simon Wiesenthal and the Israeli MOSSAD, there was likely nowhere else to go.

According to insiders, these hunted Nazis traveled through space on their secret mission aboard U.S. military Atlas V Rockets, traveling further than anyone before, until they set down safely on Mars. Once there, they reportedly set up their new experimental laboratories and protein stills, hoping to synthesize raw human genetic materials into a true Aryan superrace. From the fourth planet they planned to make a stand, and one day, a triumphant return to Earth for world domination, enslavement, and mass extermination. Mars was to be the foundation of the Fourth Reich.

Today their graves have been turned over, their markers indurated by iron oxide and argon gas. What remains are shattered pieces of birchwood lettered with the runic insignia and nonsense heraldry of the defeated Schutzstaffel (Protection Squadron).

From the Nazi catacombs it's a short walk to the top secret underground military base, according to the few scattered documents confirming the existence of the Program. Not surprisingly, in the late '70s and early '80s, while NASA deftly misdirected the public eye with the unveiling of the Space Shuttle, the U.S. military was busy transporting the first human settlement to the Red Planet in what became known as the Mars Settlement Program.

The site was first called Nova Europa, after a coffee and cattle farm outside of San Paolo, Brazil once home to one of the very first Martian transplants, a 67-year-old doctor from Bavaria who purportedly drowned in a swimming accident off the coast that very same year.

That's the official story, but there is also some very interesting terrestrial proof that that very same doctor, perhaps the most wanted of all the Nazi war criminals, had some help making good on his escape—from none other than Uncle Sam himself.

Angel Of Death Transplanted

It's thought that the Jackson Pollock of human vivisection made his way to the Red Planet through some secret back-channels associated with the infamous Operation Paperclip. This particular Operation was effective at whitewashing even the most vile Nazis and turning them into lily-white American patriots in the name of making the world safe again for democracy. The Nazi Repatriation Program brought more than 16,000 Nazi scientists to America, bleached them of their bloodstained histories, and wiped their dirty bottoms with the Stars and Stripes, making them instant, honorable, tax-paying citizens.

Mengele, was, and remained until the end, one of the worst and most Hitler-loyal of the Nazi offenders.

On his days off, the man reportedly volunteered for "ramp duty", the process by which unwanted concentration camp prisoners were summarily marked for death, the entire process articulated with a cold nod of his head.

Charged with numerous counts of Crimes Against Humanity and destined to be paraded to the gallows in a spirited public display when eventually apprehended, there was no place left on Earth where he and his ilk could hide.

He was a natural fit for the Mars Project.

Mars is the final resting place of men from the Waffen-SS, Adolph Hitler's elite Praetorian Guard.

Mengele was infamous for his brutally inhumane experiments performed at Auschwitz, where his enterprising sickness bucked new nadirs on virtually every verboten medical frontier. On any given day, he occupied himself with a sickening sampler of human atrocities: everything from anesthesia-free sex change operations to the draining of dwarves' blood just to put a stop-watch on human organ failure.

But Mengele's extensive genetic research and abject morality proved too valuable to certain alphabet agencies inside the United States government for him to be allowed to be captured and swing freely by the neck. His work was the impetus for the sexual and genetic experiments that were eventually performed in the heyday of the Mars Colony Program. It's said that his portrait still hangs in a place of reverence in the communal bunker.

According to secret dossiers, Mengele never became a "good American." His loyalty remained firmly with the Fuhrer.

Once off-world, it's believed that Mengele and his colleagues quickly wrestled control of the Mars Program away from the U.S. Military and tailored it to meet their own nefarious designs.

From its genesis, it was the Nazi and Japanese war criminal-scientists who had a firm grasp on space travel. Some of the world's most brilliant scientists, like Wernher von Braun, were introduced to the public as American saviors and quickly became popular, but misunderstood, pop icons.

But not all repatriated Germans went so gently into that good American night.

Dissenters soon turned Mars into a breeding program for their coveted "masterrace", fiddling with human DNA like dice on a craps table. Ultimately, they failed in making supermen and superwomen, but they did engineer a race of genetically-perfect sexmates with libidos like high-powered lasers.

And now, according to those in the know, the inmates have apparently taken over the asylum.

Coming To Grips With Mars

On Mars, no one can hear you scream. Accordingly, the oxygen is so sparse on the frozen Red Planet breathing without an oxygen tank is useless.

Sound here dies as soon as it travels through the whisper-thin atmosphere. Even the loudest earthly noise, the 204 decibel blasts that come from one of NASA's Saturn V Rockets during lift-off, would sound like the buzz of a mosquito on Mars.

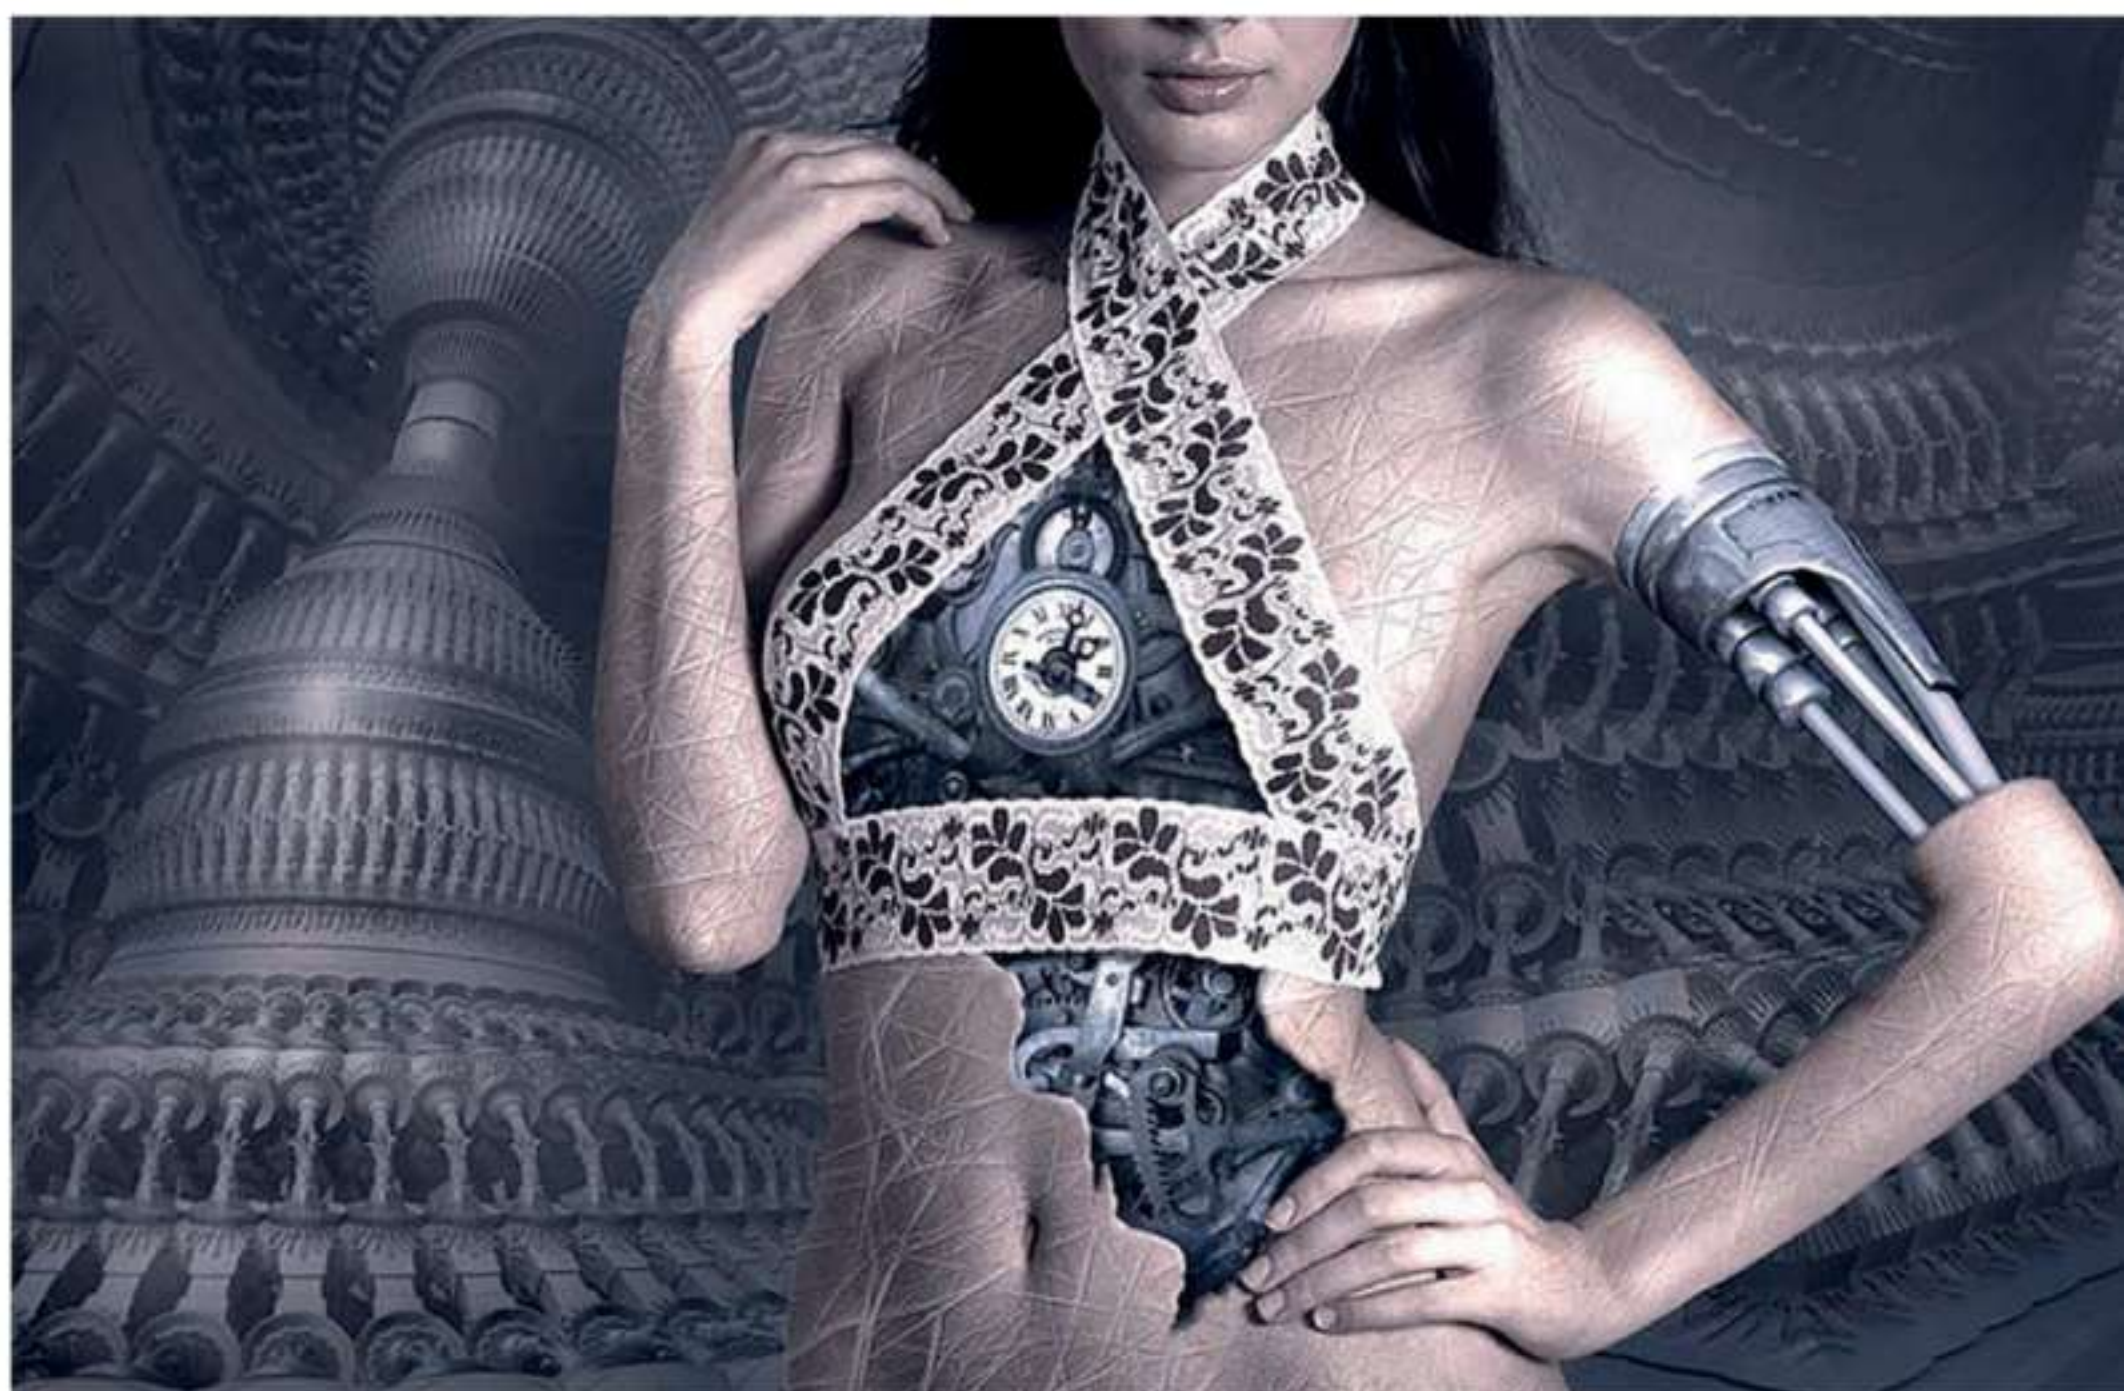

And if you're one of the thousands of super-sexed Martian "remnants," the genetically enhanced super-serf descendants of the failed Nazi plan to create a masterrace, then you've probably spent most of your time deep within the bowels of the climate-controlled space base, banging primo Martian tail.

Once in-atmosphere, about the worst thing that can happen to an individual here as a member of the Sex Colony is to get banished, sent outside the womb of the beast, out of the protection of the pressurized airlock and into the raw Martian landscape.

Poor bastards banished by the tribe usually last about 30 seconds after inhaling a lungful of one of Mars' radioactive zephyrs. Ten seconds after taking that first asphyxiating breath, the lack of oxygen makes it impossible to cough, let alone scream for help. The deoxygenated blood makes its way to the brain and renders the individual unconscious.

A human being without a pressurized space suit and oxygen can survive for only two minutes of naked exposure on the Martian surface. And just to make the whole horrible show even more memorable for the colonists who are forced to watch the ordeal from behind the six-inch protective viewing windows at ground level, the banished are sent to their death completely naked, heads eerily shaved.

What happens to an exposed human body on the surface of Mars isn't pretty. The atmospheric pressure is well below the Armstrong Limit, the point at which water (and by extension blood and all human fluids) boils at 98.6 degrees. And though the temperature on Mars can run as low as -240 F, the lack of air means that there is limited heat exchange, meaning no immediate loss of body temperature.

Already suffocating from the inside with hypoxia, the human body begins to expand. Blood vessels and capillaries grow to explode under the skin like mini-fireworks, turning the internal organs of the person into deadly projectiles. After swelling to nearly three times the size, human combustion isn't only a certainty, but a blessing.

This is your fate if you as a member of the Mars Sex Colony break one of the laws. What are the laws? Anybody's guess. No one knows for sure. After nearly 40 years of evolution, the Mars Colony is now reportedly completely self-sustaining and has fallen out of contact with the home planet after permanently disabling communication.

NASA watchers and whistleblowers like Mike Bara, author of Dark Mission and Richard C. Hoagland, Walter Cronkite's science advisor during the Apollo lunar landings and early proponent of the "Face on Mars" theory, all agree on one thing: the existence of the secret Mars Sex Colony.

CIA insider Robert David Steele appeared on Alex Jones' InfoWars radio program during the summer of 2017 and just about admitted as much. Similar information has been confirmed by anonymous hackers like QYURRYUS, who has breached some of the nation's most secure computer databases.

The allegations are nothing new, but getting an official response from a NASA spokesman was certainly cause for alarm. An official at the Agency recently made the unprecedented move of actually "refuting" the story of a human colony on Mars. Which only gives the idea that much more credence in the minds of conspiracy buffs, while serving to affirm the alternate NASA acronym: "Never A Straight Answer."

After swelling to nearly three times the size, human combustion isn't only a certainty, but a blessing.

It was certainly Mantovani-style space music to the ears of those who have long held that there is a secret joint space program run by NASA, certain rogue elements of the U.S. military, and its pet contractors. When NASA spokesman Guy Webster confirmed as much he did it by completely denying it all: "There are no humans on Mars," he said.

Red Planet Sex Party

Life inside one of the pressurized habitable zones deep inside the underground military barracks-like bunkers is said to be not unlike the last days of Rome. Things go on there that are not only not fit to print, but would lead to panic in the streets. Deviant disclosure is not forthcoming.

The base itself is said to resemble the secret underground bunker that exists just outside the town of Dulce, New Mexico.

The Mars Colony is supposedly a multi-story underground H-shaped footprint built into the side of one of the hills in the Arabia Terra or "Little Egypt" highlands just north of the Cydonia region. Inside, its thought to resemble the proverbial panty raid at Hef's mansion. Sex is fueled by desire and huge stockpiles of amphetamine-like substances manufactured by the early chemists before they passed on.

The military has been fiddling with the human genome for decades in their attempt to create the perfect human specimen. One can only guess what the body of a genetic Martian superwoman might look like, but it's likely that everyone living there is worthy of a centerfold.

Genomics pioneers like Craig Venter of the J. Craig Venter Institute has urged NASA to embrace genetic screening and genetic engineering techniques, to help make human space exploration safer and more efficient, but even he admits they've been engaged in the work for a long time.

"NASA's been doing genetic selection for a long time, he asserts.

And with good reason. The rigors of space travel—particularly the six to nine months it requires with current propulsion techniques and liquid fuel engines and long-term habitation on a terrestrial planet like Mars—certainly requires a special combination of physical, genetic and mental characteristics.

In the 1960s, having "the right stuff" meant being in prime physical condition, having better than perfect vision, leadership skills and decision-making acumen to beat the band, an engineer's technical proficiency, and an extremely confident attitude to deal with the extraordinary psychological issues that living in a cramped environment hundreds of thousands of miles above the planet demand.

Astronaut John Glenn possessed it. According to a clinical psychologist and a director at the SETI Institute (Search for Extra Terrestrial Intelligence), that meant "a tough, individualistic person who could explore an unknown frontier with great courage and certainty."

Now, apparently, the definition has changed. This new "Masterrace" of Mars colonists are now being genetically manipulated to enjoy sex at optimum levels. Their genetic sequencing is altered in utero so they are first and foremost "beautiful" beyond earthly imagination. These beings don't show signs of aging until well into their seventies and they have been engineered to copulate, repeatedly, all in the hopes of returning to Earth and one day repopulating the world with "Aryans".

It's springtime on Mars and the temperature is a balmy 65 F at noon in the dim Martian sun, the day just 39 minutes longer than the one here on Earth.

While a team of brilliant, but uninformed, engineers sweat it out at NASA's Jet Propulsion Laboratory in Southern California, trying to rescue one of the Mars rovers still stuck a ditch, just a few miles away, safely ensconced in the sex paradise of their Mars base, some 200 feet below the ice-block surface, there are sex-engineered humans having superhuman sex in a setting that's truly out of this world.

BLAIR-NTS-05

Lovely Lana Rhoades was born in Chicago in 1996. Lana wanted to do porn when she was still in high school, and when she was 18 she sent an application to a porn studio. Lana's mother put the kibosh on her porn dreams, but two years later Lana was filming solo scenes and girl-girl romps. Now Lana shoots all kinds of hardcore sex scenes. "The only thing I haven't done yet is anal," Lana said. "But I will...soon!" You bet your ass you will, Lana!

WITH... HEATHER VAHN

ALL PHOTOS COURTESY OF EVIL ANGEL, JULES JORDAN, ZERO TOLERANCE

PORN VALLEY, CA—Gorgeous Heather Vahn is an exotic beauty who could easily appear on the covers of high-end fashion magazines, and strut down the runways with fellow supermodels. But instead of a career covering herself up in haute couture, she decided to take her clothes off and enter the world of smut rags like this one, teasing that long, slender athletic body with fellow porn hotties. A 10-year adult industry veteran, Heather is an unsung performer who has definitely made jerk-worthy porno!

Are you a very dominant or submissive person?

Dominant except when in love. Otherwise, I'm an alpha female all the way.

How similar is the real life you and your porn persona?

There isn't much of a difference to be honest.

How did you come up with your porn name?

My ex-agent and I got together and created it.

What makes a performer go from being a porn girl to a porn star?

That takes a minimum of two years of hustling.

If you could direct your own porn, who would you cast and what type of theme would it have?

Cute, young models and hot boys. My themes are taboo-, emotional-, hard-core-, anal-, and European-flavored.

If you could redo your first sexual experience would you and why?

I would have preferred someone with a bigger dick instead.

Is it hard to date outside of the porn industry and why?

Not at all. None of my boyfriends have ever done porn.

How important is trust in a relationship?

Extremely. It's the Number One thing.

Ever fucked a fan?

Yes, I have and would again.

What would be your advice to a civilian guy if he wanted to approach a porn girl for a date?

Be yourself and she'll know if yourself is good enough for her in the first two minutes.

Does size matter? Yes, no and why?

Yes, because I have a small pussy and big ones are dramatic and exciting.

Can you tell us something about yourself that your fans would be very surprised to learn?

People hanging up in the middle of a phone call is so rude.

How do you react when your fans recognize you in public?

Smile and be polite and thank them for their dedication. Selfies are ok.

What's your warning to new porn girls entering the business?

Make sure you always get paid and invest. Don't confuse "fuckbois" for husbands. And keep your pussy happy.

What's one superpower you wish you could have?

Immortality.

Anything you'd like to say in closing to our readers?

I love you guys! Please come see me live on cam on my website. I adore my #VahnAddicts Nikki Kane spreads her thighs and guides Jayme Langford's hand down to her pussy. Jayme takes a moment to stroke Nikki's slick labia lips and tickle her clit before sliding her fingers inside. It's hot and wet inside Nikki's box, and when Jayme hooks her fingers up to stroke Nikki's G-spot, Nikki screams with climax. "Do me now," Jayme whispers, and Nikki slides down between her friend's thighs. Take a taste, Nikki. That's good eatin'!

ON THE SET

WICKED PICTURES PRESENTS

BIG ASS ANAL MOVIE

IMAGES COURTESY OF WICKED PICTURES

Veteran porn director Axel Braun finds five of the most buxom ladies equipped with the most alluring asses to star in his aptly titled Big Ass Anal Movie. A celebration of porn's reigning fat bottomed girls, we are treated to plenty of ass footage. Add in anal sex in every scene, this is one fine ass movie for those who enjoy ladies who possess sexy backsides and aren't shy about allowing big cocks into them.

ABELLA DANGER

Abella knows how to show off her assets while the camera uses slow-motion to titillate us during this early ass-centric tease. Abella makes her way over to a couch where Seth Gamble is sitting and soon, he's burying his face in Abella's pussy. Moments later, she returns the oral favors taking Seth's cock into her mouth. The fucking starts with Seth taking Abella's pussy from behind, then switching to reverse before Seth thrusts up hard into her ass. The duo work in a couple more anal shots including doggie before Seth unloads on Abella's face.

CANDICE DARE

Candice walks into frame wearing sexy fishnet stockings, showing an awful lot of ass cheekage! Heading inside, she finds Tommy Gunn waiting, and the two begin kissing. Candice frees up Tommy's flesh-gun and puts it in her mouth. After slobbering on his knob, they commence fucking in cowgirl. Candice goes for a nice long ride, eventually lying back for some mish action. More ass fun in doggie, where Tommy fills her butt and then the anal-fest continues in reverse. A solid scene ends with an open mouth pop for Candice to taste.

KIMBER WOODS

Kimber walks in wearing a pink bikini top with matching fishnets, white heels and Daisy Duke shorts. Kimber is working it all here from those pretty eyes to an awful lot of ass. Kimber finds Mr. Pete all ready for action, then buries his face in between her ass cheeks. They start fucking in doggie with Mr. Pete rocking back and forth deep into Kimber's pussy but when she climbs on in cowgirl, we get perfect teasing asshole shots. Pete then eases in to fill Kimber's ass. There is also anal in reverse with some ass-to-mouth from Kimber. A good smooth mish finish yields the pop shot to Kimber's wide-open mouth.

MADDY O'REILLY

Maddy enters wearing black, showing off plenty of her sexy body. The camera zooms in close on her tasty backside, complete with up close slow-motion jiggling ass shots. Maddy heads over to Toni Ribas and they say hello with a kiss followed by Toni getting a feel for Maddy's amazing ass. Maddy lies on her back so Toni can taste both her pussy and her ass before she wraps her lips around his cock. Maddy then climbs on for a ride in cow-girl. They move on to anal in which Maddy is kind enough to include lots of ass-to-mouth. A couple more anal shots are performed before closing with a big facial for Maddy.

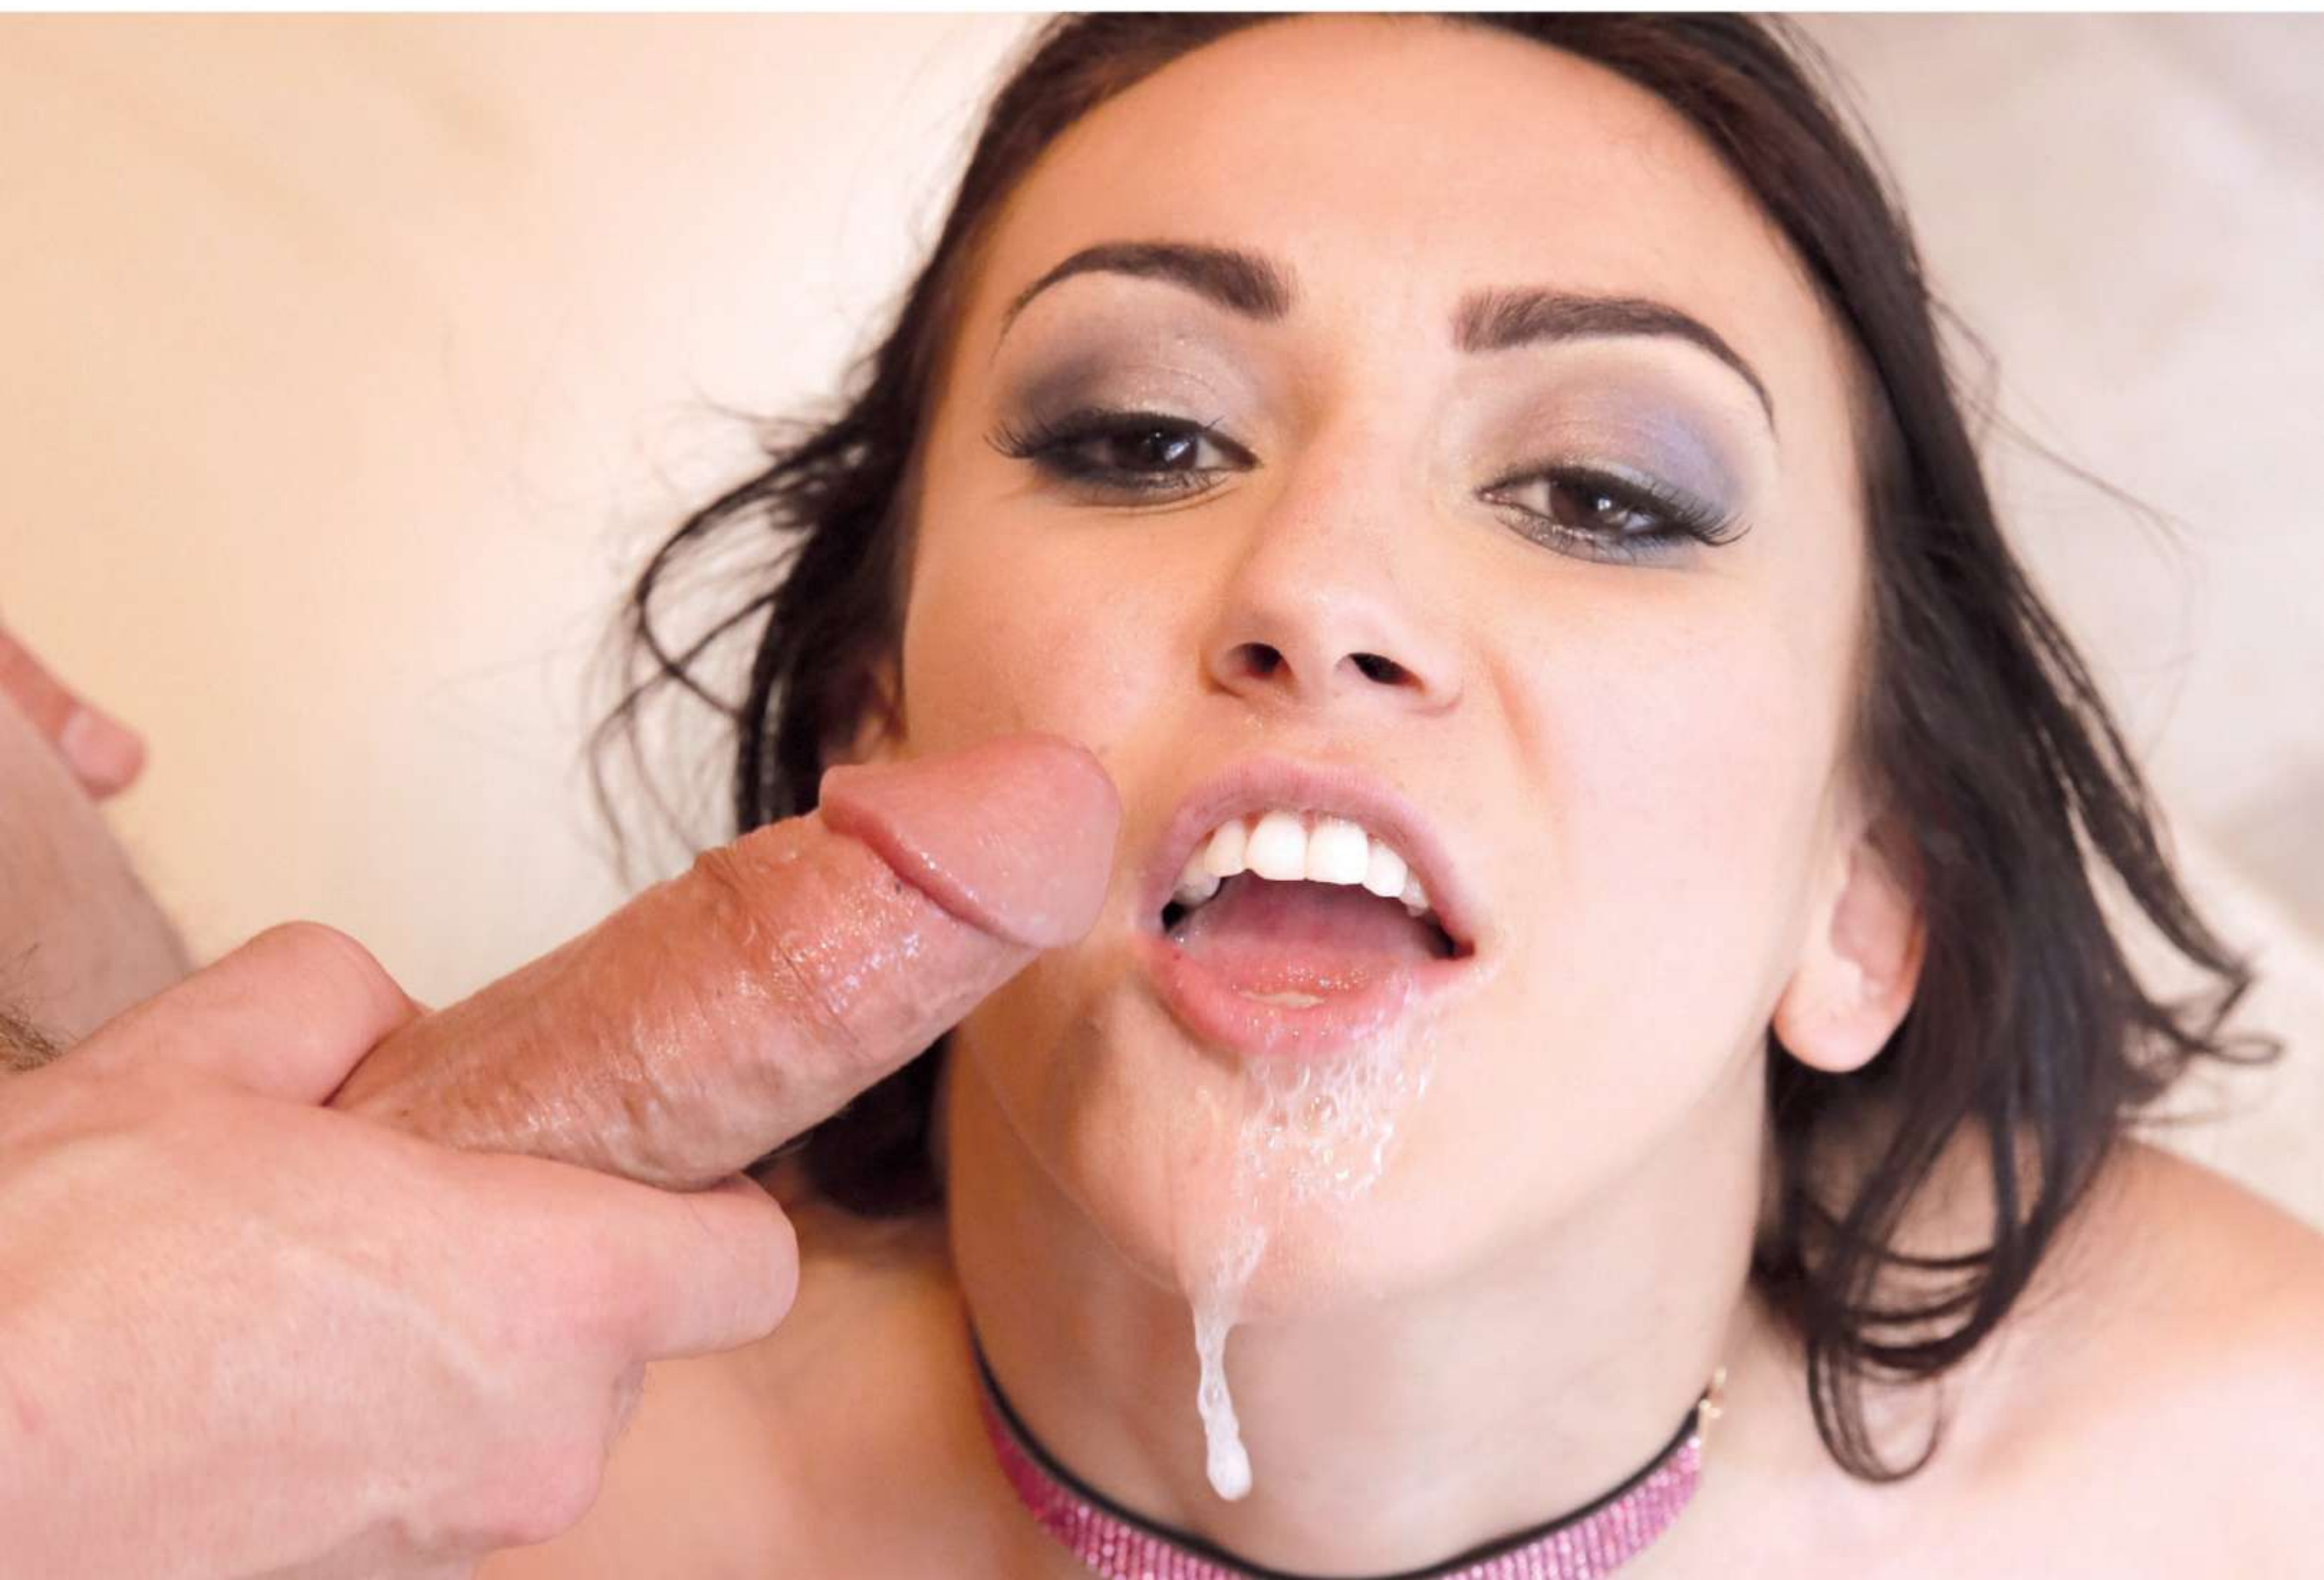

MANDY MUSE

Mandy is seen walking into frame, facing us a few times but also turning back around so her ass can be zoomed in on multiple times, including slow-mo. Going inside, she's joined by Ike Deizel, whom she gets to take out his cock and work it into her mouth. The sex begins in mish and really picks up steam once she hops on Ike for cowgirl. Mandy's ass gets plowed in doggie, cowgirl, and a sideways shot— plus multiple ass-to-mouth. Way to go, Mandy! An open mouth pop closes this show out for us.

MEGAN COXXX AND MARCO BANDARAS

MEAT FOR MEGAN

Megan Cxxx comes out of the shower to find Marco Bandaras standing in front of her, nude except for his sneakers. Megan giggles. Marco looks like such a dork! But when her eyes fall on Marco's hard pecker, she stops laughing and licks her lips. She wants that thick slab of man-bacon in her belly! Megan drops to her knees and gobbles Marco to the root. We think your outfit is cool, Marcos. All you need is a raincoat and you're ready for the movies!
